We have the power to build a world free from patriarchy!

- Is there a Woman's, GLBT or Civil Rights issue that you care about, deeply?
- Do you get worried or outraged every time you read about it in the news?

You CAN do something about it.

Burlington NOW is your chance to work with other people to make the INJUSTICE STOP.

We offer feminists a space to connect with others who share our passion for justice. Together, we do fulfilling, effective, activist work — in the spirit of sisterhood and friendship.

Join Burlington NOW, attend our meetings, or connect with us on our Facebook page!

There are two ways to attend our meetings, in person or on our Skype call.

- Attend by Skype call: Add MeioSetsuna777 and write "Burlington NOW" in your friend request
- Attend in person: Uncommon Grounds coffee house on Church Street in Burlington
- Meetings are always the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 7pm

Or, talk to us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/burlingtonnow>

NOW connects you with your foremothers and the movement they created.

With more than 500,000 contributing members in all 50 states, the National Organization for Women is the largest women's rights organization in the United States. Founded in 1966 by leaders such as Betty Friedan and Shirley Chisholm, it is one of the oldest and most well-known second-wave organizations.
